

Thursday, July 17, 2008

8:30	Overview of the Day (Bruce Caron)				Holloway Commons Squamscott
	Holloway Commons Salmon Falls	Holloway Commons Cocheco	Holloway Commons Lamprey	Holloway Commons Piscataqua	Holloway Commons Squamscott
9:00	AccessData: Creating an Educational Module using the Air Quality Cluster's Data	National Integrated Drought Information System (NIDIS)	Establishing a Common Ontology for Earth System Science	Sensor Web Enablement
10		The NEW Comprehensive Large Array Data Stewardship System (CLASS) - NOAA Data Center Paradigm	ESIP As A Virtual Organization	Cross-Agency Reuse and Reuse Collaborations
11		The CLASS Application Programming Interface - SNAAP!	NSF DataNet Solicitation: Submitting a Proposal in the Next Round
12	Lunch (Holloway Commons Servery)
1
2	Color and Light: Making the Connection from Satellites to Ground-truthing	The Evolouction of Data Management at NOAA	What Should Our Earth Information Exchange Offer (EIE)?	Water Management Cluster Meeting
3	Data-type and Service Ontologies	Metadata	ESIP Federation Contributions to Decadal Survey Missions		What We Talk About When We Talk About the Air Quality Cluster
4		Carbon Cycle Cluster Meeting	ESIP Is a Peer-led Organization
5
	Closing Session				Holloway Commons Squamscott